

Top 5 Fall Family Session Style Guide

A photograph of a family of four in a field at sunset. The father is on the left, lifting a young boy into the air. The mother is on the right, lifting a young girl into the air. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The field is filled with tall grasses. The background shows some trees and a clear sky.

01.

Focus on Coordinating Colors, not matching. Choose a color palette that compliments the beautiful fall season. First, head to Pinterest and grab some inspiration by typing “Color Palette.” Earth tones (burnt orange photographs beautifully), neutrals, and textures are great! Introducing one pattern can create interest but avoid big blocky patterns, large stripes and bold plaids. Also avoid bright or neon colors.

02.

Incorporating textures and subtle patterns can add interest. Corduroy, denim, lace, and flannel are fun choices for fall. Plaids, subtle stripes, and small prints in small doses can be visually interesting.

03.

Flatter Each Family Member. Be mindful of each person's body type. Don't wear baggy, uncomfortable clothing that can add weight or bulk. Show off your best features and wear what makes you feel beautiful! Mom's, don't underestimate the power of a gorgeous, flowy dress!

04.

Shoes tend to get overlooked when getting ready for a photoshoot. Make sure you choose shoes that are comfortable and match your outfit style. Avoid tennis shoes, bright colored footwear, sandals, and high heels (unless it's a formal shoot). Another fun option is going barefoot, depending on location.

05.

Don't forget to add in some fun accessories. Adding in special, and subtle necklaces, bracelets, scarves, or even a fun boho hat can add texture and interest. A little goes a long way. You don't want it to become the focus.

Above all, embrace this fun event you and your family are about to be a part of! Remember, we are capturing the love, details, and relationships you and your family have. It doesn't have to be stressful. Start planning early, hang all of your outfits up where you can see them over several days, add and subtract as you go. Take a deep breath and let's have fun!
